Fire District 6 Receives Clean Financial Audit

The Washington State Auditor's Office completed its bi-annual financial and accountability audit for Fire District 6, declaring no findings or issues to address.

“Receiving the clean audit from the State Auditor's Office for the 2007-2008 financial accountability review is good news, as Fire District 6 continues its long history of compliance” said Fire Chief Jerry Green.

The State Auditor's Office serves the citizens of Washington by promoting accountability, fiscal integrity and openness in state and local government. Working with the Fire District, auditors help ensure the efficient and effective use of public resources.

All audit reports are public record. The State Auditor's Office posts completed reports on its Website, www.sao.wa.gov.
