Fire Station Open House

This Saturday, June 4th, Fire District 6 in Clark County is inviting the community to its Hazel Dell fire station for an afternoon of fun and learning. This year's annual Open House: Family Fun Day will include a water rescue demonstration in an above-ground pool; car extrications; K-9 demonstrations by the Clark County Sheriff's Office; a Life Flight helicopter; a fire safety smoke house; low-cost bicycle helmets provided by Southwest Washington Medical Center; fire engine rides; a junior firefighter challenge where kids put on turnouts and spray a fire hose and much more. Applebee's will serve free oriental and caesar salads. Panda Express will serve free orange chicken and white rice. The Salmon Creek Lions club will cook and serve free hot dogs donated by Northwest Natural. Free Chips, donated by Paul Davis Restoration, snow cones and popcorn, donated by People's Community Credit Union, will also be available. This event guarantees great visuals for both television and print media. Everyone is invited to attend.
